Kinver Edge Farm Shop & Follow Maize Maze on Ants24 for updates on new events as they are announced... Here we are at Kinver Edge Farm Shop & Listed in The Corn Maze is one of the most recent events, to give you a taste of what's going on there: The Halloween 2017 Chainsaw Massacre visited to visit for a newly opened purple walk. Most of the time the signs were posted even though we had a good walk back to the car after getting out of the wrong place. Quite up and down but so difficult and amazing views once you reach the top of the ridge. On the way, I had to avoid some deposits left by the dog. Unfortunately I didn't notice the dog in the parking lot and didn't notice until I put the puppy poop on the carpet and pedals in my car and sat at the restaurant table for lunch. Dog walkers please pick up your dog dust, please note that this is just unacceptable. A popular Disney-themed maze has opened for the summer holidays. The annual Corn Maze will now open at The Kinver Edge Farm Shop, with a Disney theme this year at kinver edge farm shops and country cafes where corn mazes have reopened to visitors this weekend. Staff at the family attraction, which has a mile-long path across 10 acres of land, welcome guests. This year features a number of popular Disney characters that should be found through the maze as part of the quiz, and there are prizes for those who complete it. Evangeline Beaumont, a Disney princess from Kinversource, enjoys a new labyrinth. Ian Sadler, owner, said: The more you put it in the maze, the more you get it. Some people finish it very quickly, but others spend a whole day there with a lot of other things in the maze, and there are some great views on Kinver. It is in a large barn and fairly basic. If you want somewhere smart, this is for you. If you want good, home made food, it certainly is. We ordered scrambled eggs for toast and tea. The eggs were good, two rounds of brown toast and two good tea mugs. The young women who served us were polite, helpful, and polite, and served us well. We bought a beautiful Victorian sandwich cake and a huge egg to take home. UK contributing 5819 helpful votes for fun activists for both adults and children but adults can also enjoy. The people who greeted us were nice and explained the different mazes. They are inside the maze and have questions to complete - even tested our knowledge as adults! Definitely a good activity even if you go ready for poor weather as this is still a pleasant thing to be well-being! The labyrinth is nicely spaced to move away socially during this awkward time. After escaping the maze, they serve food and drinks in case you do a bit of flavor... You'll find that a lot of hard work has gone into the creation of the maze, asking for lovely hand paint pictures and trails along the way around. Not commercially available at all and very reasonably priced at £6.50 per adult - we had about 3 hours of fun! I want to visit again next year when I have a new design!... Date of experience: September 2020 Kawaai wrote a fun and highly priced review of the September 2020 Solihull, UK 108 Donation43 Useful VotingFab Outdoor Family! This should be an ideal fun activity in the COVID era, and outside fun Air. Toilets, picnic areas and cafes are kept clean and the whole place is very well maintained with friendly and friendly staff. The kids loved the maze and the fun activity trail which is a lovely touch and included in all the very fair prices.... It is very unusual for a family day these days. Also a good selection of hot/cold food and drinks in the café, which is again quite well priced. Nice day!... Experience Date: September 20201 Karen B has created 15[15] uk donations in August 2020, which is a helpful voting tool, and has been improved to three mazes each year to add to the challenge. Great day and facilities improved every year. Some seats in the bud maze will help the previous group members cool down before performing. Date of Experience: August 2020 KRoberts37 wrote a review in August 2020, which was 10 useful votes for donations to the UK 16 despite heavy rains, and my little boy and I had a pleasant afternoon at Corn. Splash in a puddle, enjoy hot chocolate and number a lot of animals. It is a fantastic place for families with kids of all ages. There are a variety of things to continue enjoying between the maze and outdoor games. The team was really helpful and generous, so we were looking forward to a return visit in the sunshine....
